Accommodation

See also the La Trobe at Beechworth website for supplementary information – www.latrobe.edu.au/beechwothotel

Accommodation will be in a number of buildings on the site – The George Kerferd Centre, The Linaker Building, (both motel style rooms), McCarthy House and four cottages, (all suitable for several couples) There is also the Gatehouse which would be suitable for a larger family group or groups.

NOTE: Those wishing to share a cottage or a house will need to identify at the time they make their booking the principal contact person who accepts responsibility for payment. We also require a list of all other persons with whom they will share.

Bookings are on a “first in first served basis”. The sooner you book the more options you have.
